Helpful Notes:

- 1.If you have a specific place you are looking to move into, use its address. If not, put in the address of a home/condo/apartment that you would like to live in.
5. If you're renting a place in the city where you attend school, but your family home is elsewhere (and you plan to return there), answer "no" to this question.
6. If you will be earning an income from your running own business and the space is vital to your business, you must answer "yes" to this question.
7. Do not lie about this. If the property is damaged due to a fire from smoking, and you did not declare this on your insurance application, your insurance claims may be denied. You may also have issues getting a home insurance policy later on in life.
10. Insurance companies do what is called a "soft pull" on your credit report. This will not affect your credit score.
- 13.It's always a good idea to keep a copy of your receipts for large purchases (example: furniture, electronics, jewelry, etc.). This makes submitting an insurance claim much easier,
